

Programme Kick-Off

Monday 24 August

On Monday we welcome all new students from all departments at the Codarts location WMDC. After a first meeting with your department, you will be welcomed by the President of the Board, followed by an interview with students from different departments. For lunch offered by Codarts, you will move to the main building at Kruisplein.

In the afternoon, you can get useful information for a good start to your studies at the information market. A team of helpful staff members will be on hand to answer your questions and inform you about a variety of topics such as your registration, exemptions, housing, insurance, healthcare, international affairs, the Student Life programme, the Participation Council, facilities etc.

Tuesday 25 - Wednesday 26 August

On Tuesday and Wednesday, you will be divided into small groups and mixed with students from other departments. Together you will work on a crossover project.

There will be a short warm-up every day, so make sure to wear comfortable clothes. Performing arts students should wear training clothes. Musicians, don't forget to bring your instrument. Percussion students, there are Latin American instruments available at Codarts and drum students are asked to bring their cymbals.

Thursday 27 August

On Thursday, the festive final presentations of the crossover projects will take place at the Codarts Circus Arts building Fenix I. You and your group will present your piece and enjoy the creations of the other new students. Afterwards, you are invited for drinks. Don't miss it!

Friday 28 August

Most departments have organised a department-specific programme on Friday. This day is all about socialising and getting to know your fellow students and your new study programme. A more detailed programme will follow and will be published on the website.
