

Master Turkish Music

World Music

---

A candidate for the Turkish Music master programme :

- should deliver a (detailed) plan concerning the Artistic Research question(s) he/she wants to investigate during his/her master studies at Codarts World Music,
  - delivers a logbook handout of his/her personal performance and other activities history (such as workshops, research, portfolio of other artistic outcome in case of a double degree proposal etc.),
  - delivers links at YouTube and/or audio files with his/her recordings,
  - possesses a bachelor in music degree or a equivalent,
  - has an appropriate level on his instrument of choice, that should be demonstrated with performances of both composition and improvisations on the desired area of study (Anatolian Folk, Ottoman Music or modal music of other eastern Mediterranean and middle eastern cultures),
  - has understanding and is able to comprehend (on a bachelor in music degree level) of western music theory and practice,
  - plays for a committee a few extended pieces of relevant repertoire. Free choice of repertoire
-